FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIREFIGHTER SHAD HATFIELD RECEIVES FIREFIGHTER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Award Recognizes Outstanding Performance in the Utah County Community

Lehi, Utah | November 6, 2013 – The Lehi City Fire Department is proud to announce that Firefighter Shad Hatfield has been recognized by The Utah Valley Chapter of the National Exchange Club as Firefighter of the Year.

Shad is a firefighter/paramedic who has exhibited outstanding leadership, mentoring, and customer service. He is always willing to go the extra mile with his patients, he takes time to teach new medics about how to properly treat patients, and he is humble and quiet in the performance of his duties.

Shad is a team player and seeks to build cooperation with his co-workers and the community. Shad has served on a number of committees outside the scope of his normal work, and he thrives in the stressful environment of firefighting. Shad is a consummate professional, and he is a credit to the Lehi Fire Department and Lehi City.

The National Exchange Club is an all-volunteer, national service organization for men and women who want to serve their community, develop leadership skills, and enjoy new friendships. Made up of nearly 800 clubs and more than 25,000 members throughout the United States and Puerto Rico, The National Exchange Club is working to make America a better place to live through one national project, the prevention of child abuse. To date, The National Exchange Club's efforts have helped more than 10,000 families and 140,000 children break the cycle of abuse. The National Exchange Club's goal is to become the premier service club in America by igniting the spirit of community service throughout the nation.

For further information regarding the National Exchange Club or for this award, contact Kena Jo Mathews, President of the Utah Valley Chapter of the National Exchange Club. Kena can be reached at Kena@habitatuc.org.
